

Agency of the month

This month, ABC College of English in Queenstown, New Zealand, nominates Aventure Linguistique from Switzerland. Tricia Lund-Jackson explains this decision.

In a series appearing each month in Language Travel Magazine, we ask a different language teaching institution to nominate one of their preferred agencies or agent partners, and to explain why this person/company is worthy of their nomination.

“Because we work with so many excellent agents it really is difficult to nominate just one. However there is one particular agent who we think deserves special acknowledgement and that is Denis Baker at Aventure Linguistique. Although a relatively new agency, they have shown a level of professionalism, enthusiasm and commitment to excellence that is to be commended. In our experience they offer students an exceptional personalised service and they always go the extra mile to ensure students are well looked after. They are very organised and efficient, and they always provide us with all the correct information and details that we require at the time of enrolment. Denis has already made the effort to visit our school on several occasions and so he has a good insight into what we offer and is able to provide up-to-date information to his clients. He also has an in-depth knowledge of New Zealand as a study destination and a real appreciation of what it has to offer and can advise his clients accordingly.”
